

2017-2018 Burnet Library Coffee Talks Series VII

Oct. 12, 2017

Alison Moore

Riders on the Orphan Train, and Phillip Lancaster, singer/songwriter official outreach program for the National Train Complex Museum, Concordia, KS (www.orphantraindepot.org) They will speak & sing as part of their program.

Nov. 9, 2017

Denzel Holmes

Author of seven Western novels set in Texas, inspired by tales from his great-grandfather.
His latest book, Little Stone Mountain, is a modern-day adventure Western.

Dec. 14, 2017

Cinda Adams Brooks

Heartprints of Africa

Being a child of missionaries and growing up in rural East Africa.

Jan. 11, 2018

Vannetta Chapman

Shipshewana Amish Mystery Series and the Pebble Creek Amish Series will introduce her mysteries and their Amish setting.

Feb. 8, 2018

Vicki Tongate

Another Year Finds Me In Texas

Life in Texas during the Civil War from the diary of Lucy Pier Stevens.

March 8, 2018

Karen Casey Fitzjerrell

Forgiving Effie Beck

Set in central Texas during the Great Depression.

April 12, 2018

Melissa Lenhardt

Sawbones female western series & Jack McBride small town Texas mystery series.

May 10, 2018

Don Graham

Giant: The Making of a Legendary Texas Film, to be published in early 2018